Freedmen's Labor in South Carolina---Form of Contract.

As a matter of general interest to our agricultural friends, we publish the following form and terms of agreement, which has very generally been adopted between the planters of South Carolina and the freedmen:

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, }
DARLINGTON DISTRICT. }

Articles of Agreement between _____ and _____ Freedmen and Women, whose names are hereunto attached:

1st. The said servants agree to hire their time as laborers on the plantation of _____ from January 1st, 1866, to January 1st, 1867; to conduct themselves faithfully, honestly, civilly; and diligently to perform all labor on said plantations, or such as may be connected therewith, that may be required by the said _____ or his agent; and to keep no poultry, dogs or stock of any kind, except as hereinafter specified; and without the written consent of the proprietor or his agent to keep no fire arms or deadly weapon, no ardent spirits, nor introduce or invite visitors, nor leave the premises.

2d. The said servants agree to perform the daily tasks hitherto usually allotted on said plantation, to-wit: 125 to 150 rails; cutting grain, 3 to 6 acres; ditching and banking, 300 to 600 feet; hoeing cotton, 70 to 300 rows an acre long; corn 4,000 to 7,000 hills.

In all cases where tasks cannot be assigned, they agree to labor diligently ten hours a day.

3d. For every day's labor lost by absence, refusal or neglect to perform the daily task, said servant shall forfeit fifty (50) cents. If absent voluntarily or without leave, two (2) dollars a day; if absent more than one day, without leave, to be subject to dismissal from the plantation and forfeiture of share in the crop. All such fines and forfeitures shall inure to the benefit of the employer and employees, in proportion to their relative shares.

4th. Said servants agree to take good care of all utensils, tools and implements committed to their charge, and to pay for the same if injured or destroyed; also, to be kind and gentle to all work animals under their charge, and to pay for any injury which they may sustain while in their hands.

5th. They stipulate to keep their houses, lots and persons in neat condition, and subject to the inspection of the employer or his agent at any time.

6th. They agree to furnish from their number a nurse for the sick; also, stock minder and foreman, to be selected by the employer. They agree to be directed in their labour by the foreman, to obey his orders, and that he shall report all absences, neglects, refusal to work, or disorderly conduct to the employer.

7th. The said employer agrees to treat his hirelings with justice and kindness; to furnish each family with quarters on his plantation, with one-fourth of an acre of land for a garden and the privilege of getting firewood from some portion of the premises, to be indicated by the employer; and to divide the crop with them in the following proportions, viz: To the hirelings one-third of the corn, potatoes and peas gathered and prepared for market, and one-third of the nett proceeds of the ginned cotton, or its market value at the end of the year; and when desired, to furnish the usual bread and meat rations, to be accounted for at the market price out of their share of the crop.

8th. Said employer agrees to furnish animals and to feed them; also, wagons, carts, plantation implements, &c., such as cannot be made by the labourers on the plantation.

9th. All violations of the terms of this contract, or of the rules and regulations of the employer, may be punished by dismissal from the plantation with forfeiture of his or her share of the crop or wages, as the case may be; but the employer shall pay said parties at the rate of four ($4) dollars a month for full hands, deducting therefrom advances made.

10th. The employer or his agent shall keep a book in which shall be entered all advances made by him, and fines and forfeitures for lost time or in any cause, which books shall be received as evidence in same manner as merchants' books are now received in Courts of Justice, and shall have a right to deduct from shares of each labourer all his or her fines and forfeitures, also all advances made by him.

11th. The labourers shall not sell any agricultural product to any person whatever without the written consent of the employer.

11th. The labourers shall commence work at sunrise, and be allowed from one to three hours each day for their meals, according to the season of the year.

In cases where parties prefer to contract for wages in lieu of a part of the crop, it will be competent for them to do so, in which case the Committee suggest a scale of prices according to quality of hands, ranging from $40 to $120 per year.

A CONFLICT OF AUTHORITY IN EAST TENNESSEE.

KNOXVILLE, Dec. 29.—A conflict of authority between the civil and military authories occurred at Dandridge, East Tennessee, under the following circumstances: A party of soldiers, under orders, killed the guerrilla Thornhill some months ago. These men under an act of Congress were tried, acquitted, and discharged by court martial. They were indicted before Judge Swan in the Circuit Court of Jefferson county for the same offence, and by him remanded to prison. General Thomas ordered their release. The order was disregarded, and the force sent to release the prisoners captured by the Sheriff with posse comitatus, and imprisoned. General Stoneman has sent two hundred men under officers to release the prisoners, and arrest all who resisted General Thomas's order. This will include the Judge, Sheriff, and many citizens. The military have taken possession of Dandridge, and will remain until all trouble ends.

MISTAKEN ARREST.—It is said that the Government made a serious mistake in the late arrest of R. B. Winder, who was for a long time chief quartermaster of Confederate prisons east of the Mississippi. The party desired was W. S. Winder, who, it is said, has succeeded in making his escape to Canada.

It is stated that General Grant purchased and paid for a dwelling house in Washington last month for which he gave $30,000. The statement that it was given to him is untrue

Desirable Farm for Sale.
THE PLANTATION SITUATED ABOUT TWO and a half miles from the village of Magnolia on the Wilmington and Weldon R. R., between that place and Kenansville, and known as "Barbacue," is offered for sale. The tract contains 360 acres, 100 of which are cleared and have been under cultivation, producing excellent Corn, Wheat, potatoes, &c. A portion of the land is also well adapted to the culture of cotton. An inexhaustible bed of Marl, a large spring of as good water as can be found in the State, and a never failing stream, running through the center of the cleared land, are among the attractions of the place.
The timbered portion of the land being nearest the Rail Road, and the entire place being easy of access to a first rate market, make it a highly desirable location for growing produce, raising stock and selling timber. Any one having the cash, can procure a bargain by applying immediately to

Coe's Super-Phosphate of Lime,
OR
WARRANTED GENUINE.
BEING MADE OF THE BEST MATERIAL AND in the most approved manner, it is recommended to the public as superior to any other in the market. All who have used it speak of it in the highest terms of praise, and those engaged in its manufacture will continue their best endeavors to advance the high reputation which it has acquired.
We guarantee the Phosphate to be well manufactured, and recommend it in preference to any other artificial manure in the market. We consider it nearly equal to the best Peruvian Guano, although furnished at half the price.
Messrs. B. H. Allen & Co., the well known manufacturers of agricultural implements, say of it:
"We take pleasure in stating that we have sold E. F. Coe's Super Phosphate of Lime for four years.—It has given universal satisfaction to our customers. We most cheerfully endorse it as an article worthy of the confidence of the public, and the purchaser may rely upon securing an article honestly and carefully manufactured.
"We would state that, after careful examination, we believe this Phosphate has been improved each year since its introduction in this market, and that it will continue to maintain its present high standing.
"Very respectfully,
"R. H. ALLEN & CO.,

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E PELL, SEATON GALES, } Editors.

Friday, January 5, 1866.

OUR TERMS.

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sunday excepted) at the following rates:

For Daily, per year,	$10 00
" six months,	5 00
" one month	1 00
" two months	2 00
Semi-Weekly per year,	5 00
Weekly per year,	3 00

Our terms are invariably in advance. The Weekly and Semi-weekly will be issued about the first of January. Money may be sent us by the Rail Road conductors or the Express Companies.

THE PEOPLE must be trusted with their Government, and if trusted, my opinion is that they will act in good faith, and restore their former constitutional relations with all the States composing the Union.---Andrew Johnson's Letter to Gov. Sharkey, of Mississippi.

The Daily Sentinel.

All who are now receiving the Daily Sentinel, if they wish it continued or wish it changed to the Semi-Weekly or Weekly, will please let us know at once. The cash can be sent us as soon as it can be done by private hands or by the Express Companies, until the mails become reliable.

Those who are now in debt to us will please remit as soon as convenient.

The Semi-Weekly Sentinel.

As soon as a sufficient number of names can be obtained on the Semi-Weekly list, it will be issued. Perhaps it will not be issued before the 1st of February. In the meantime those who order the Semi-Weekly will be furnished with the Daily until it is issued.

The Weekly Sentinel.

The first number of this paper will be issued on the 10th inst. As the edition will not be much beyond the list of names, those who wish to begin with the first number should order it at once.

The Stay Law.

There are many persons who feel interested in what the Legislature may or may not do in regard to a Stay Law. Many of our people are in debt. They are honest and intend to pay, if creditors will exercise the necessary patience.—But the re-opening of the Courts has excited the suspicion in some minds, that it will be the signal for a rigid collection of old debts. The condition of the people is such, that any attempt to enforce collection would produce general discontent, if not clamor. Nine-tenths of the people can do but little more at present, than procure food and raiment. To force the collection of debts would expose to sale one third of the real property in the State, and the excessive scarcity of money, would necessarily reduce the market value of property enormously.

We have been urged to raise our voice against a policy that would prove so ruinous to so many. To quiet the fears of the public, we remark, that the present stay law on our statute book is still in force, the action of the Convention not having annulled it. That law with perhaps some modifications or inprovements, will no doubt be continued in force by the Legislature. At least we do not doubt, that the Legislature will not assume the responsibility of placing the debtors of the State at the mercy of the creditors. Collections will still be delayed, until the people are better able to meet their obligations.

The Freedmen.

Now that the colored race of North Carolina are beginning to comprehend that freedom does not mean, any man's exemption from work, we entertain strong hopes that it will yet be found possible to make available the labor of the large class of our population in the material development of the State. There has never been, at any time, any disposition to deprive the freedmen of their rights, or to treat them with injustice, but still less can such an inclination exist, when they manifest a desire to resume the labors of productive industry. It should be our aim to encourage them in this laudable purpose; to give them fair wages; to accord them strict justice, and to make them feel, as they have often been told by the officers of the United States, that we are their best friends. With the restoration of something akin to the mutual confidence and sympathies which once existed between the two races, we shall witness a new era of prosperity and happiness for both.

The comparatively brief imprisonment in the Penitentiary to which Ketchum, the hero of the late gigantic forgeries has been sentenced, is a striking and sad commentary on the inequalities with which the law is administered.—The poor wretch who steals a cow, or a pony, or picks a pocket of a few dollars, would think himself lucky to escape with four years and six months of confinement, and would probably be sent to the Tombs for a much longer term.—But Ketchum, who plays the millionaire among rogues, seems almost to be complimented for his enterprise, by the mildness of his sentence.

The New York Tribune has a mocking article on the subject of the lately apprehended Christmas troubles, treating such apprehensions with a most unbecoming levity. This is not a subject for jest, nor are criminations seemly. We should all, both at the North and at the South, both whites and blacks, be thankful to Providence for having delivered us from the horrors of such an outbreak—to which there could have been but one termination, and that termination was witnessed in the recent negro revolt in Jamaica.

PETERSBURG INDEX.—This is one of our most valued exchanges. It has been enlarged and is one of the largest dailies in the South. It is ably edited and well filled.

High Prices.

Added to the other great evils we suffer in North Carolina, high prices are becoming a subject of universal complaint. This is remarkable. When there is no complaint of the scarcity of provisions or goods, almost every thing ranges at two or three prices higher than the gold prices before the war. And remember this is the case when money never was so scarce before.

The prices generally are ten to twenty times higher than in Confederate times. Why is this? Have every body except the printers,—poor fellows always hard worked and poorly paid,—become extortioners. Printers pay two prices for paper and two prices for labor, but they keep their papers at the same old gold prices before the war. Advertising rates are the same as before the war. Won't people get ashamed of this, and either come down in prices or pay the printers better? Think of it.

And even the Rail Roads, with whom we are on the best of terms, are charging two prices for freight and passage. We see there are complaints against the Rail Roads for detention of goods. It may be so. But they are overworked. Have more business than they can cleverly do. We are sorry they can't do better in that respect. But what excuse have they with so much patronage, for high prices? Other people may complain of other things, but we are down upon high prices.

Loyal Journalism.

The N. Y. Tribune's definition of a loyal journal excludes from the category almost every paper in the South,—certainly every respectable journal. Its shibboleth, as recently announced, is one which holds that, in the pending reconstruction of the Southern States, "that portion of the people who were for the Union in our late struggle shall be accorded equal rights with the portion who were against it." i. e., freedmen as well as whites, and that no press is sound or loyal that is arrayed in hostility to the sweeping assumption.

The test of Southern loyalty, then, is not obedience to the Constitution and laws of the United States; is not in taking and faithfully observing the oath of amnesty; not in promptly acceding to all the requirements of the authorized officers of the government. These things count as dust in the balance. They are, in Radical eyes, but the tithe of mint and rue.

The manner in which the President has recently thrown down the gauntlet to the radicals, in the recognition of our civil governments, is full of hope and promise that they, and the few in our own midst who sympathize with them, in effect, if not in intention, will speedily be overwhelmed.

Vote on the Ordinances.

The vote on the anti-secession and anti-slavery ordinances of the Convention, is larger than we expected under the circumstances. We allude to it in order to correct the error of the printer in summing up the aggregate vote, as contained in Gov. Holden's last proclamation.

The aggregate vote as announced by Gov. Holden was as follows:

For the ratification of the anti-slavery ordinance,	18,527
For its rejection,	3,396
Majority in favor,	14,831
For the ratification of the anti-secession ordinance,	19,977
For its rejection,	1,950
Majority in favor,	18,027

Since the publication of the above result, the Secretary of State has received the returns from Franklin and Yadkin Counties. Franklin voted 54 for the ratification of the anti-slavery ordinance and 237 against. For the ratification of the anti-secession ordinance 93, against it 56.

Yadkin voted 438 for the ratification of the anti-slavery ordinance, and 37 against it; for the ratification of the anti-secession ordinance 438, and 6 against it. The aggregate vote in favor of the anti-slavery ordinance, therefore, is 15,067, and in favor of the anti-secession ordinance, 18,494.

Superior Court Clerks.

The bill passed by the Legislature at its late session authorizing the chairmen of the County Courts and four other Justices, to qualify the newly elected Superior Court Clerks and receive their bonds, was designed to take effect immediately upon its passage. At that time and up to the 28th of December, any such Clerk could have been qualified, but no order having been given for its immediate publication, we presume the Clerks in some Counties failed to attend to it.

The Provisional offices being regarded as becoming vacant upon the termination of the Provisional government, the law becomes a nullity, except in those Counties where there is a Chairman of the Court and four other justices under the old government, who did not resign or take the oath to the Confederate government.

The Sheriffs and Clerks elected in November under the ordinance of the Convention, should have been duly qualified by the proper officers then in existence, preparatory to their entering upon their duties as soon as the Provisional government terminated. In some Counties we learn this was done.

It has been well observed by a leading Conservative Northern journal, that President Johnson has done more to reconcile the South to the supremacy of the Union in eight months, by his policy of conciliation, than England has in reconciling Ireland to its lot, after four centuries of such a policy as that advocated by the Sumners and Stevens of the American Congress. No more exalted eulogium could be bestowed.

Release of Hon. Geo. Davis.

We are greatly gratified at being able to announce the release from confinement of the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this paragraph. The intelligence will be received with the same pleasure in many portions of the State as in his own town of Wilmington, where he stands so deservedly high in the confidence and affections of its citizens.

Discrediting the National Banks.

Information has been received at the State Department that attempts have been made by Southern journals to discredit certain National Banks, recently organized in the cities of the South, by asserting that the institutions are in a precarious condition and likely to fail, and therefore their currency should be rejected altogether or taken with caution. These attempts to discredit the National Banks would fail of their object, if Southern people would bear in mind that the circulation of the so-called shaky banks is but 90 per cent. of the securities deposited by them with the Government; that there is now on deposit with Mr. Spinner, United States Treasurer, $337,000,000 for the redemption of the notes of National Banks, and the notes of the only bank that has failed—the Bank at Attica, N. Y.—are now held by private citizens without uneasiness. This bank failed last March, and up to this time but $1,500 of its circulation has been presented to the United States Treasurer for redemption.

The only valid objection which can be urged against the National Banks established in the South is, that usually they have so small an amount of capital, they cannot supply the place of our old Banks, for the reason they cannot loan money for the accommodation of borrowers. Hence they are obliged to do an exchange and brokerage business to keep afloat.

But we need Banks based upon a foundation equally solid with large capital, capable of affording the accommodation which the Southern people need and must have. We can see no immediate relief to the people of the South, except in the establishment of Banks which can afford accommodation.—(ED. SENTINEL.)

National Intelligencer---Gov. Graham.

This old staid conservative journal we are glad to find, keeps on the even tenor of its way, and under its new proprietorship maintains its consistency. We are also pleased to learn from its columns, that its patronage is flattering and increasing.

The Intelligencer of the 1st inst., contains at length the able speech of Hon. Wm. A. Graham, delivered in the State Convention of 1861, on the "test oath" proposed in that body. Alluding to it the Intelligencer says:

Our readers will measure, by the large space which this morning we give to it, our sense of the importance of a temperate, elaborate, and exhaustive essay on test-oaths, as they are affected by the system of policy and law under which Americans have unconsciously acquired and intelligently conserved their own peculiar sense of the true principles of order. We have thought that the perfectly obverse occasion on which the distinguished writer of this remarkable argument against test oaths, applied the principles of the subject, is a fact which affords a happy opportunity to ascertain what intrinsic force they may have, by applying them now to the kindred questions, several forms of which are at present under advisement in each of the three several departments of the Government, where they have been raised by the circumstances of the country in connection with enactments by the National Legislature.

We commend the speech of Hon. William A. Graham, published on our fourth page, for a studious and patient reading. It would be unbecoming, having in view by this publication only the object of furnishing our readers with the best available matter on the subject, to express here any other endorsement than our sense of the dignity of this learned dissertation.

We have seen the statement in print that Governor Graham has been pardoned. We learn from Hillsboro' that this is a mistake.—Raleigh Standard.

If Governor Graham is not "pardoned" we hope he soon will be; at all events, his case will not suffer for want of the support of North Carolina's present Governor.—Richmond Statinel.

We stated some days ago upon what we consider to be good authority, that President Johnson had signed the pardon of Gov. Graham.—We did not say that Gov. Graham had received his pardon. We stick to what we said.—(ED. SENTINEL.)

HOMER'S ILLIAD.—We observe that "the Illiad of Homer rendered into English Blank verse, by Edward, Earl of Derby," has been issued from the press of Messrs. C. Scribner & Co., of New York, in two volumes. The press speak favorably of it.

NORFOLK VIRGINIAN.—This is an excellent daily and gives promise of being a permanent institution in the old Borough. The publisher Mr. Sykes is well known in this city. If any of our readers desire a Norfolk paper, they can do no better than to order the Virginian.

GOLDSBORO NEWS.—This clever cotemporary comes to us much improved and enlarged. We are glad to see such indications of its prosperity. Its editor is a sterling man and makes a sterling paper.

A Popular New Novel.

Mrs. Downing's new novel, "Nameless," which was issued on the 20th November last, has attained an immense popularity and the demand for it has been so great that the first edition is already exhausted, and Messrs. Smith & Co., Raleigh, N. C., are now putting two more editions through the press—one in muslin and one in paper. The second edition—paper covers—will be ready January 6th, the third edition—in cloth—will be ready January 10th. The rapid sale of this author's book is, after all, the best and highest compliment she has received.—Field and Fireside.

We are pleased at the above announcement. The accomplished authoress will be encouraged to try again.—(ED. SENTINEL.)

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says the South is coming to the Treasury for a fair share of the present and future national bank currency. Applications for national bank charters are received in unexpected numbers from the cotton growing States. An increase of currency is there needed to encourage and assist in the revival of the cotton culture, as well as the movement of the crops, when they shall be made.

LETTER FROM GENERAL EARLY.—The New York News contains a letter from Licutenant-General Early, of the late Confederate army, written at Havana. General Early denies that he has made, or intends making, any application for pardon; says he has given no parole, has taken no oath, and would not receive a pardon if tendered. He proposes to make his home in Mexico for the future. He criticises at length, and with considerable asperity, the late reports of General Grant and Secretary Stanton, so far as they relate to the twelve months operations in Virginia preceding the surrender.

Message of the Governor of Ohio.

CINCINNATI, December 31.—The Ohio Legislature assembles to-morrow. Governor Anderson's message is directed principally to State affairs. The institutions of the State are represented as in a flourishing condition.

The Governor devotes a considerable space to the railroads of the State, which have become of immense value to the stockholders and people of the State. He advocates some legislation for the protection of the lives and property and other rights of the people from the encroachments of power. He advocates the reduction of the State militia tax and the modification of the enrollment process. In speaking of the detention of the Ohio volunteers in the field, the Governor says it was no part of the intention or expectation that these noble patriots, volnnteering to fight for our Union, were to be detained as public guards to oversee political reforms in the South, whether as to whites or blacks, still less to be marched to the Rio Grande, either to menace or assault Maximilian or any other despotism.

The Governor argues at some length against the principle of the Monroe doctrine, and interfering in Mexican affairs. He says: "What the Mohroe doctrine exactly is we have never agreed among ourselves. Its origin is doubtful, its purposes uncertain, and remain to this day unspecified. Mexico has never been and can never be a Republic, unless her people will, to accommodate us, be born again, and of entirely different parentage. She, with all her sister Republics, of South America has been from the beginning, uninterruptedly, a most bloody, incendiary, and disgraceful anarchy. She has continually injured all nations with which she held communication. She ruthlessly ruined and oppressed her own people and Government, and has brought disgrace alike upon the sacred name of republican liberty and of human nature. He says he is opposed to going to war with France, or to menace or bully her in behalf of Mexico.

Queen Victoria, when at home, regularly teaches a Sunday School and Bible Class for the benefit of those residing in the Palace and its vicinity. How attentive she is to her own children, may be inferred from a late pleasing circumstance. The Archdeacon of London on one occasion was catechising the young Princes, and, being surprised at the accuracy of their answers, said to the youngest Prince, "Your Governess deserves great credit for instructing you so thoroughly in the catechism." Upon which the boy responded, "Oh, but it is mamma who teaches us the catechism." Many American mothers may take a profitable hint from this Queenly practice.

SOUTHERN BAPTIST CONVENTION.—The board of foreign missions, at a meeting held in this city on Wednesday, determined that the next meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention shall be held at Russellville, Ky., on Tuesday, May 22d, 1866. The last meeting of this body was not held in consequence of the condition of the country during the war, and the important questions which are to come up for discussion at its approaching session will draw together a large number of delegates from all the Southern States, and probably representatives from the principal boards of missions of the Northern Baptist churches.—Richmond Dispatch.

The history of Mexico shows that during the last forty years Mexico has had thirty-seven different forms of government, thirty-two of which were "Republics," and seventy-five Presidents. Its revolutions during that time have amounted to over two hundred.

IMPORTANT SALE.

ON WEDNESDAY, THE 24TH OF JANUARY, 1866, I shall offer for sale, my plantation in Bertie County, lying on the Roanoke River, three miles from Hill's Ferry on said river, and six from the village of Woodville in Bertie County, containing 1000 acres, more or less; 500 acres cleared and well adapted to the growth of cotton, corn, wheat, &c.

There is a very fine opportunity to make a large cotton crop on the plantation the next year, as there is compost enough ready made to manure nearly 100 acres. The plantation made in 1861, 43,000 pounds of lint cotton, and 4,000 bushels of corn; and, with proper management, will do great deal better for the next year, as the most of the cotton land has had rest for the past two years. A very great advantage which this farm has, is its convenience to transportation, being only one mile to a good landing on the river, where there is a regular line of steamers to Norfolk weekly. In addition to the above, this is the only river farm in this portion of the county that has fire-wood enough, conveniently for use; there is an abundance here, and timber of almost every kind, cypress, oak, hickory, ashe, gum, &c. Lumber dealers would do well to examine the land before the day of sale.

There are about 500 or 500 acres on this tract uncleared, which affords a fine range for hogs, and a free access to numberless acres of uncultivated lands renders it very profitable for the raising of cattle, colts, &c.

The improvements consist of a gin house and cotton screw, overseer's house, cabins enough for 25 or 30 laborers, corn barns, &c. At the same time and place, I shall sell 200 or 300 Barrells of corn, fodder, mules, horses, hogs, farming utensils, &c

Terms for the land: one third cash, the balance in two equal instalments, payable respectively in 12 and 18 months, and title withheld until payments made. For the perishable property, cash.

For any further particulars, address the subscriber at Enfield, Halifax county, N. C.

TELEGRAPH OFFICE.—The office of the Telegraphic Company has been removed to the office of the Southern Express Company.

Col. W. H. Harrison is a candidate for re-election to the Mayoralty.

COLORED TROOPS.—Some of the colored troops stationed at Fort-Macon and its vicinity, we learn, have been very unmanageable and unsoldier like in their department both at Beaufort and Morehead City. Squads of them have treated the defenceless people on the Banks badly, and in one or more instances have outraged the person or persons of white girls.—Some of them have been apprehended and imprisoned for trial, and we learn that on Gen. Ruger's learning these facts, he at once gvve peremptory orders that they should not be permitted to leave the Fort. We learn that the people of that section are extremely anxious for their removal.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—We call attention to Rev. G. W. Deems' notice of the Southern Hepatic Pills.

[From the New York News, January 1.]

GEN. JOHN H. WINDER.—The following well anthenticated instructions were given by Gen. John H. Winder, whilst he was the Confederate Commissary General of Prisoners. They manifest very clearly his disposition to reciprocate and encourage the kindly treatment of prisoners, and another proof of the mendacity of those who are so ungenerously and shamelessly attempting to convict the defenceless people of the South of barbarities, from the committing of which they would have shrunk as shudderingly as the people of the North. Against the charges of all these unrelenting foes, the South, though she be not permitted to speak now, will yet have opportunity to vindicate herself. That she will do so completely, and that she will consign her traducers to the contempt and scorn of mankind, we have not the shadow of a doubt:

HEADQUARTERS, C. S. M. PRISON, E. M., }
Columbia, S. C., Jan. 31, 1865. }

Captain Sinn:—I am instructed by General Winder to request that you grant permission to Captain McChesney, a prisoner of war now in your custody, to visit Mrs. Feaster, at her residence, near the market. The General has reliable information that this officer has, on many occasions, been very kind to our people. You will put him on his honor, not to say or do anything against this country, and to return at such hour as he may designate, (say 10 o'clock.) Mrs. Feaster wishes him to come this evening.

Respectfully,
Your ob't serv't,
W. S. WINDER, A. A. G.

ASTRONOMICAL &c.—Some people take an interest in star-gasing, and all that sort of thing; we confess, in advance, that we do not, but through a pure spirit of accommodation, we glean and publish the following in regard to the Sun, and Moon and their anticipated doings during the year 1866:

There will be five eclipses; three of the sun and two of the moon. In accordance with the astronomical programme, these eclipses will be ushered in by a partial eclipse of the sun, March 16, 1866. This eclipse will be invisible, both in the United States and Europe. This will be followed by a total eclipse of the moon, March 30, 1866, visible throughout the United States. The moon will enter Penumbra at 8 o'clock 19 min. P. M., will enter Shadow at 9 o'clock 19 as seen at Washington; will be in the toral phase from 10 to 12 14; will emerge from Shadow at 1 21, and from Penumbra at 2 30. The principal advantage of this eclipse will be the uncommon facilities it will afford to sensation reporters for the exercise of the most gorgeous powers of imaginative description.

Another partial eclipse of the sun will take place April 15, 1866. Visible only in Australia.

A second total eclspse of the moon will take place September 24, 1866. The eclipse will be visible only on the Pacific cost, commencing at San Francisco at 4.9 P. M., and becoming total at 5.9. The moon will set, on this occasion, in total eclipse—another rather original feature of the programme.

A third partial eclipse of the sun, will take place October 7 and 8, 1866. The eclipse will be invisible at Washington, but visible as far north as the Americo-Russian possessions, and in the major part of Europe.

This completes the programme of eclipses for the year, unless some new amendment to the Constitution should be started, in which case, of course, copious additions will be made to the programme.

STEAMSHIP LINE TO BALTIMORE.—We invite the attention of merchants, shippers and travelers to this cheap and expeditious route to and from all points North. The splendid and commodious steamship Ellie Knight, the pioneer of the line, will sail for Baltimore on Thursday morning. Travelers going to New York, and desirous of stopping in Baltimore and Philadelphia, would do well to avail themselves of the superior advantages offered by this route.

Wilmington Dispatch.

General Grant proposes sending staff officers to the principal military departments as soon as the holidays are over, to see what further reduction of troops and materials of war can be made in the several localities. The working of the Quartermaster's Department is likely to receive especial attention, with a view to lessening expenses.

Artemus Ward and wife were found dead at their residence in Worcester, Massachusetts, on Friday morning last, from the effects of inhaling coal gas.

The Louisiana National Bank of New Orleans, capital $1,000,000, has been authorized by the Comptroller of the Currency. The total circulation of national banks is $237,371,000.

The Public Patronage.

"Secretary Seward, in his Auburn speech, laid down the doctrine that loyal men must sustain the Administration, and there are indications that those holding Federal offices will be expected to stand by the President. More than this, Congressmen who oppose the Administration must not expect that their friends and proteges are to be permitted to retain fat offices while loyal supporters of the Executive policy have friends "out in the cold." Already there have been some significant changes at San Francisco, at New Orleans, and at other points, nor are any new appointments being made except of men who stood by the President, and whose protectors in Congress stand by the President's policy. This can but produce an effect on Capitol Hill, as it has in years past, and it is already hinted that the loyal Tennesseans will receive their seat before a great while, as evidence that Congress desires to stand by the President."

Receipts at Baltimore of Southern Products.

The first arrival from the South after the close of the war, (beyond what had been the army lines,) was about the latter end of April, when the little steamer Emma Dunn, from Richmond, came into port with a cargo of tobacco and cotton. Since that period, up to the close of business yesterday, there has been received at this port by steamers and vessels 6,238 bales of cotton, of which 2,048 bales came from Richmond, 1,503 bales from Savannah, 1,186 bales from different points in North Carolina, 761 bales from Nortolk, 418 bales from Petersburg, and 322 bales from Charleston. Of tobacco the receipts have been 17,515 packages, 5,554 boxes, and 1,780 cases manufactured, and 3,923 hogsheads leaf, received from Richmond, Petersburg, Fredericksburg and North Carolina. The receipts of naval stores have been 2,582 barrels tar, 2,414 barrels rosin, and 374 barrels spirits turpentine, from North and South Carolina, Florida and Virginia. The trade in flaxseed has been quite large, 3,206 barrels and bags having been received from Richmond and Norfolk. Some 300 barrels and casks rice came from Savannah and Charleston, and 11,576 bushels of wheat and 10,000 bushels corn were received from Virginia and North Carolina. Besides the above, immense quantities of shingles, staves, lumber, dried fruit, &c., have reached this market from the rivers of North Carolina and Virginia, all of which have found ready markets.—Baltimore Sun, 30th.

A Fearful Story of Hydrophobia---Death of Six Children from the Milk of a Bitten Cow.

Some six or seven years ago a mad dog went through the village of Waterloo, Jefferson county, and bit a number of animals. Among others it snapped at the leg of a cow belonging to Mr. Babcock. The animal was examined, but no mark could be found, and it was supposed that it escaped being bitten. The animal was afterwards sold to a man by the name of Garrison, who used her milk very freely, as did two of his children. Some of the neighbors, included Mr. Drew's family, were also supplied with the milk of this cow. At different times during the time since the cow was bitten there has been inexplicable and fatal sickness among those using her milk, and two children of Mr. Garrison's, two of Mr. Drew's, and two others, have been attacked with spasms and died in great agony. Mr. Garrison has also been attacked at times with spasms. The mystery of this sickness was solved by the death, with every symptom of hydrophobia, a short time ago, and in whose system madness had been latent ever since. The case is a singular one, and worthy the attention of scientific men.

BEECHER ON THE REBS.—The Rev. Henry Ward Beecher delivered an address on reconstruction at Troy, New York, the other evening, and is reported by the Times (Republican) as saying:

Those flashes of Southern sentiment, bitter editorials and tossing heads, are not surprising when we think of the scourge that has swept over them—that a proud spirit has been obliged to confess defeat at the hands of men they despised—that their property has been swept away—their sons slain—they reduced from affluence to beggary. When I think of this, the wonder is that they are as temperate as they are. Considering their fearful defeat and humiliated position, I think they have behaved well. It may not be fashionable, but I honor them for the feeling they exhibit."

An Eloquent Extract.

The following beautiful extract is from a speech delivered by the Hon. Alexander White, in the Alabama State Convention:

* * * The Bonnie Blue Flag no longer reflects the light of the morning sunbeam, or kisses with its silken folds the genial breeze of our Southern clime. The hands that waved it along the fiery crest of a hundred battle fields, and the hearts that, for the love they bore it so often defied danger and death, no longer rally around it. Another banner waves in triumph over its closed and prostrate folds, but proud memories and glorious recollections cluster around it. Sir, I will refrain. The South needs no eulogy. The faithful record of her achievements will encircle her brow with glory bright and enduring as the diadem that crowns the night of her cloudless skies. The scenes of Marathon and Platæ have been re-enacted in the New World without the beneficent results which flowed from those battle fields of freedom, and our country lies prostrate at the feet of the conqueror.

But dearer to me is she in this hour of her humiliation than was she in the day and hour of her pride and her power. Each blood stained field, each track of devastation, each new made grave of her sons fallen in the defence, each mutilated form of the Confederate soldier—her widow's tear, her orphan's cry—are but so many cords that bind me to her in the midst of her desolation, and draw my affections closer around my stricken country. When I raise my voice or lift my hand against her, may the thunders rive me where I stand. Though I be false in all else, I will be true to her. Though all others may prove faithless, I will be faithful still. And when, in obedience to the great command, "Dust to dust," my heart shall return to that earth from whence it sprang, it shall sink into her bosom with the proud consciousness that it never knew one beat not in unison with the honor, the interests, the glory of my country.

ERRATA.—A down east editor, in a complimentary notice on a valiant general, was made, by the omission of a single letter, to call him "a battle scared veteran." The poor man has tened to make amends in his next issue by stating that it was his intention to have denominated the hero "a bottle scarred veteran." This is equal to the Dublin editor, who thus corrected a typographical error: In our paper of yesterday, for "her Grace, Duke of Devonshire," read, "his Grace, the Duchess of Devonshire."

The Kentucky Legislature will go into an election for United States Senator on the twenty-fifth instant.

The rumor I gave you last summer, with reference to a seat on the Supreme Court Bench for Judge Sharkey, was yesterday revived. In point of capacity, Sharkey has few equals, while in point of dignity it would be difficulty for any judge to surpass him. That the South will have the vacant seat you may set down as certain.

DIED

At his residence in Warren County, of Pneumonia, on Friday morning, Dec. 29th, 1865, THOMAS G. PLUMMER, Esq., aged 53 years, leaving a widow and five children. He had earned a name for rigid integrity and uncompromising veracity which few persons enjoy. In all the relations of life, in his domestic circle, in his social intercourse, and in the discharge of every duty as a citizen, he was all that kindness, hospitality and uprightness could require. His life was exemplary and free from censure or reproach, and he died lamented by all who knew him.

R.

"Sympathy for the suffering prompts me to certify that my servant man was suffering in the last stage of Pneumonia, throwing up matter and blood in large quantities; his case was considered hopeless, so much so, that there was no medical prescription used for his recovery; I regarded him as good as dead. Hearing of the great cures made by the SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS, I thought that I would try an experiment on him; without any hope of success however, I gave the Pills in large doses; in a short time, to my great surprise, there was a change for the better. I continued giving them to him until he became a perfectly sound man. He is now attending to his work with as much strength and vigor as he ever did. With his case, and what I have seen and heard of the good effect of these Pills, I do most earnestly recommend them as the best family medicine I have ever seen or used."

ADDRESS THE INVENTOR,

B. FRANK. PALMER, LL.D. PRES'T A. A. LIMB. C'o.

These inventions stand approved as the "best" by the most eminent Scientific and Surgical Societies of the world, the inventor having been honored with the award of FIFTY GOLD AND SILVER MEDALS (or "First Prizes") including the Great Medals of the World's Exhibition in London and New York; also the most Honorary Report of the great Society of Surgeons of Paris, giving his Patents place above the ENGLISH AND FRENCH.

Dr. Palmer gives personal attention to the business of his profession, aided by men of the best qualifications and greatest experience. He is specially commissioned by the Government, and has the patronage of the prominent Officers of the Army and Navy. Six Major-Generals and more than a thousand less distinguished officers and soldiers have worn the PALMER LIMBS on active duty, while still greater numbers of eminent civilians are, by their aid, filling important positions, and effectually conceal their misfortune.

Advice and Pamphlets Gratis.

To avoid the imposition of Piratical Copyists, apply only to DR. PALMER, as above directed, or to his Agent,

Pioneer Line of Steamers

FOR

THE COMMODIOUS STEAMERS PIONEER and Commodore Adams, will leave Newberne for Norfolk on TUESDAY of each week at 8 o'clock A M, connecting with the different lines of steamers for the above-named points. On and after the first day of December next they will leave on Tuesday and Friday of each week, making semi-weekly trips. Shippers of Goods will receive every facility and accommodation for the transportation of the same, as arrangements have been made with the different companies to forward goods to this line at low rates and without delay. Each of these steamers are capable of carrying through the canal without difficulty, as they were built expressly for the trade. They are fitted up with STATE ROOMS and BERTHS capable of accommodating thirty-five passengers. Every attention will be paid to the comfort of passengers, who will not be subject to the inconvenience of transfer to other vessels, but will be taken through direct without charge.

The tables of the steamers are liberally supplied with the best the market affords. Families traveling will find it to their interest to take this line, as they will thereby escape the danger and discomfort of a sea route, and the fatigue of railroad travel.

On the 15th of December next, if the business of the line warrants it, the steamer Williams will be put on the route, and tri-weekly trips will be made.

For freight or passage apply to Whitford, Dill & Co., Newbern, N C.
